Merchant Program Saturday

A live nativity scene, a visit by Santa Claus and two Merchants Appreciation programs are all a part of the 1966 Yuletide season for Canyon residents.

The first Merchants Appreciation program will be held Saturday, December 10, at 3:30 p.m. on the east side of the courthouse square.

Six Religious Groups

Withdraw REW Support

Not Fitting Need Clergymen Declare

Six religious groups on the campus of West Texas State University have withdrawn their support from the annual Religious Emphasis Week.

The formal announcement came Tuesday at a meeting of the campus Inter-Faith Council. Dr. James P. Cornette, WT president, was at the meeting.

A Campus Christian Community made up of the Disciples of Christ, Episcopal, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian and Roman Catholic Churches made the decision not to support REW.

"We see an inescapable need for a more effective and unified ministry to the whole campus, both pastorally and academically," said Rev. Jerry Franz, spokesman. "We have banded together to accomplish this freshly and creatively."

The ecumenical group is now sponsoring a Film Discussion series that drew 500 students to the first program which featured a film, "Lord of the Flies."

On December 19, the ecumenical group will sponsor a presentation by Robert Short of the material that inspired his book "The Gospel According to PEANUTS". Also envisioned by the group are cooperative service projects, lectures by ecumenical theologians and cooperative courses in scripture and doctrine.

To clarify its position to the student Inter-Faith Council and the University administration, the Campus Christian Community issued this statement on Tuesday:

"The relevance of Christian ministry on university campuses in this country has never been more seriously called into question than in this decade. We, who seek to minister on this campus, have been involved in re-thinking the structures through which we have been engaged in ministry at West Texas State University. As a result we have taken a step in a new direction, and are now committed to a new structure."

"This year six religious communities have joined together as a Campus Christian Community in a new ecumenical venture to engage students and faculty in what we hope will be a more relevant and mature encounter. This first step seeks to recognize that we have an obligation to engage mature scholarship and thinking with mature religious dialogue, and to emphasize "religious concern" as a year-round occupation for an academic community."

"We believe that in making this new beginning in ecumenical (See NOT, Page 7)

City Rectifies Earlier Miscue

An oversight by the City Commission was corrected Monday when the group passed a resolution and ordinance approving a merger of the Canyon and Amarillo telephone systems.

"We have a motion in the minutes to approve the action," said City Manager Gary Gwyn, "but we never did pass the ordinance or resolution."

The ordinance must be published in the legal newspaper of Randall County, "The Canyon News", before it can be officially adopted.

Earlier following a public hearing, the council approved the merger, a rate increase, and a consolidated telephone directory.

Southwestern Bell District Manager D. D. Dillard had talked with the commission and was present at the hearing.

The council also agreed to allow $345 in next year's budget for an historical marker to be placed at City Hall.

In presenting her request, Mrs. T. B. McCarter, who is with the Randall County Historical Survey Committee, gave an outline of what would be printed on the plaque.

Plaque inscription was prepared by Roland Black, Chamber of Commerce manager.

Santa Letters To Be Printed

"Dear Santa...." Once again, it is time for children to send their letters to Santa Claus, and they are urged to get these in the mail soon.

The Canyon News will print letters mailed to Saint Nick by Canyon children, and then forward them to the North Pole.

Buffalo Lake Improvements Are Scheduled

Construction on about $25,000 worth of improvements at Buffalo Lake will begin in February or March.

Refuge Manager Gordon Hansen said between 60 and 70 picnic units that include table, garbage containers and fire boxes will be built. The money was made available by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife through the Department of the Interior.

Also included in the improvement program will be six modern restrooms located throughout the area.

There will be what Hansen termed "shore line development" and a rerouting of many roads at the Lake area.

"Some of the roads will be made one-way", Hansen explained, "and we're going to put up road side barriers to restrict random travel."

"If we're going into this program, there is going to be some policing of the area to stop littering, vandalism and violation of water safety laws," Hansen declared.

He said violators of the laws at the Lake Refuge will now be taken before United States Commissioner J. L. Bagwell.

Scenic Canyon Drive Sought

Randall County commissioners court Monday heard an indirect proposal for a 60-mile scenic highway through Palo Duro Canyon.

Jay Taylor, Amarillo businessman and civic leader, called County Judge Lloyd King on the matter Monday and King relayed the message to the court.

One of the prime movers behind the project is H. L. Howell, mayor of Memphis. When contacted, Howell said delegations from Hall, Arms-

THIS GROUP OF Randall County farmers were on hand Thursday morning of last week to sign at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office here. Many of them spent Wednesday night waiting for the 1967 Cropland Adjustment Program.

CAP Registrants Far Exceed Ready Funds

Randall County farmers have signed up for $441,271.33 in benefits under the 1967 Cropland Adjustment Program in which only $26,107 have been allotted so far.

This information came Monday from Don Lloyd, manager of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office here.

Lloyd said some more money probably will be forthcoming. "I'm afraid to guess how much," he said. "That depends on the traffic elsewhere. Unused money can be shuffled from one area where it is not used to an area where it will be."

The ASCS office manager pointed out that $3,461,000 has been allotted to Texas. Lloyd said that about 1/2 the amount allocated here is based on 1966 sign-up experience.

"There wasn't much traffic last year," he declared.

The money which was at first allocated to Randall County also was based on last year's traffic, he went on. "It is no indication of the money we're going to get."

More than 20 farmers waited up at or near the ASCS office Wednesday night in order to be on hand for the sign-up which got under way Thursday morning at the ASCS office.

Lloyd said there was no jostling at the office door.

ART MCNARNEY

McAnarney Is Chosen All-Dist.

Canyon's fine guard Art McNarney was named by the football coaches of District 1-AAA to the all-district offensive team last week.

McAnarney was the only Canyon gridders to make a first team honor on the all-district list.

McAnarney's selection to the offensive team is a tribute to his courage and determination, as he was the smallest lineman selected. Art stands only 5-9 and tips the scales at 165. On the other extreme were Hereford tackle Rick Fangman (6-2) and Bill Coffin (230).

Receiving honorable mention for Canyon on the offensive team were tackle David Rossi and halfback Joe Moore.

On the defensive team, honorable mention went to McNarney at guard, Rossi at tackle, and end Howard Gidden.

The only athletes to make both the offensive and defensive first teams were Dumas Wayne Harkrider--an end and linebacker--and Steve Burks, a halfback and safety. Burks is a junior.

Other officers to be installed are Burwell Southern, vice president; Ocie Chism, treasurer; George Ritter, secretary; and new directors, Tommy Lagrone, Dick Dawdy, Stu Lawrence, and Hollis Snyder.

Master of ceremonies for the program will be "Doc" Stewart, an announcer for KVII television station in Amarillo.

All Kiwanis and their wives are invited for the occasion according to Russell Altmiller, retiring president.

Group Seeks Needy Families

A data control center for individuals, church and civic groups wishing to aid "needy families" at Christmas time has been established through efforts of the Canyon Pastor's Association.

All persons knowing of needy families in the community are urged to contact Genelle Bourland, OLS-3251, in the County Judge's office and give a brief description of the family's need and circumstances.

Names of the "families in need" will then be transferred to the appropriate church and civic groups who are wishing to lend aid, according to Rev. Charles Meredith, president of the Pastor's Association.

Harlem Stars Here Dec. 19

Frank Kimbrough and Bill Wilson will be seeing plenty of action the night of Dec. 19 when a quintet of local basketball players take on the world-famous Harlem All-Stars.

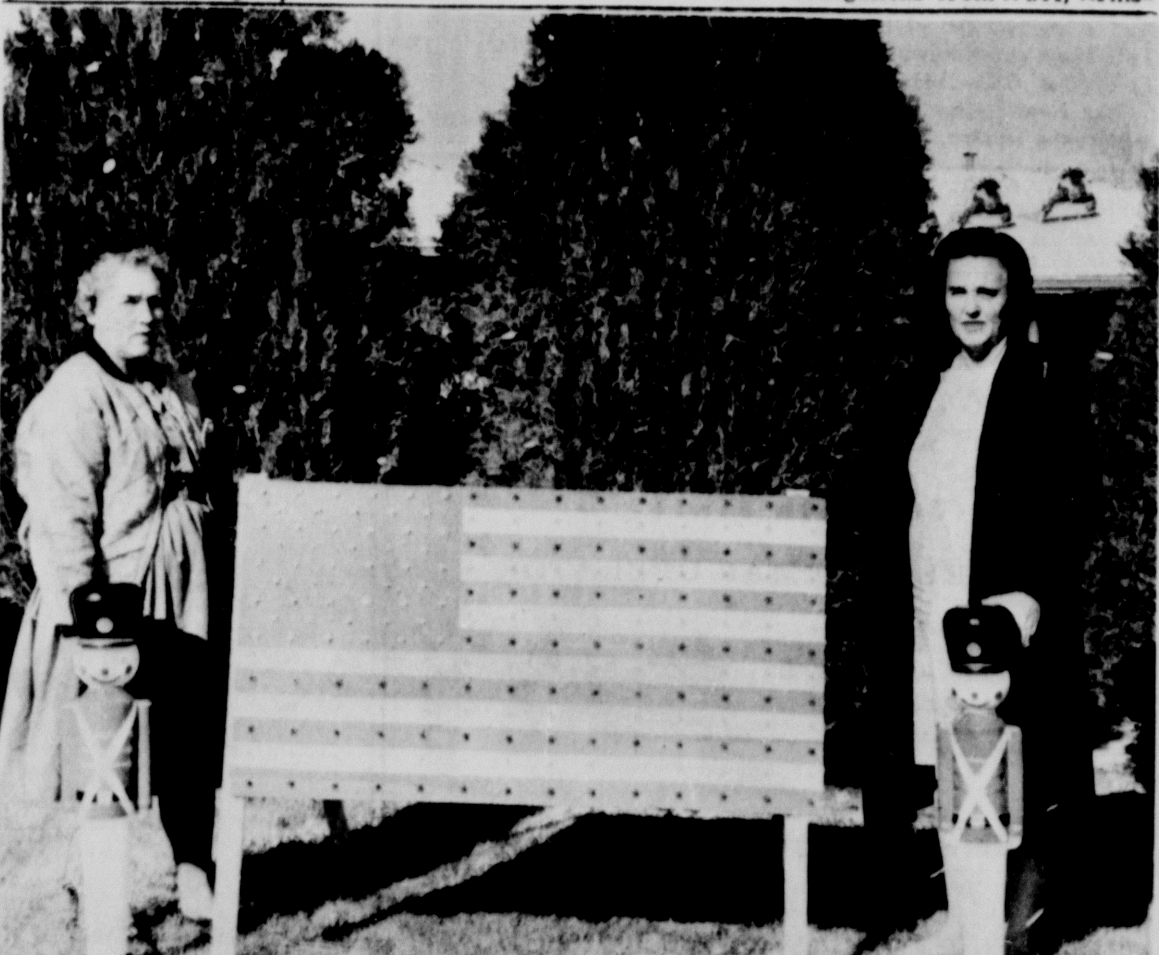

Tickets to the game are now on sale. The tilt is sponsored by high school and university booster clubs.

Johnnie McBroom said proceeds will go to promote athletics in West Texas State University and in the Canyon School System.

The team coming here is called Harlem All Stars but the name Magicians has stuck to them because of the antics they pull on the gym floor.

A local lineup of basketball players will be taken from high school coaches and faculty, West Texas State coaches and members of the booster clubs.

As this story went to press there was a move on to draft Coach Joe Kerbel. Huey Laycock, Canyon School supt., will also be suited out for the occasion.

MRS. M.W. HICKS, right, has prepared a United States flag complete with over 200 miniature lights as an addition to her yard decorations for the 1966 season. Flanking the arrangement will be two toy soldiers. Also pictured is Mrs. Hicks' sister, Mrs. Charlie Howard, who assisted with erecting the large display six miles west of the Canyon city limits on FM Road 1062. Lights at the Hicks home will be turned on December 10 and will shine each night during the holiday season.

If the government had educated our children for us, we would now know a spiritual poverty far more humiliating than our economic poverty has been.

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

By Troy Martin

George Dowlen, our district attorney, uses a wrist watch alarm to keep him from speaking too long when he addresses juries.

I'd recommend George's watch to anyone who is in the habit of speaking before groups of people. One of the worst breaches of manners is to hold an audience too long.

Not too long ago I attended a luncheon meeting at which one speaker talked 18 minutes the first time he got up. The next time he spoke 24 minutes. He wasn't even the featured speaker.

The principal speaker spoke about 12 minutes. I can remember in detail what he said. I don't remember much of the first speaker's text.

I was told of one speaker who droned on for 2 1/2 hours as commencement speaker at a high school in a neighboring town. School officials finally had to tell him that the program would have to go on and would he please sit down.

We all remember the Gettysburg Address, a jewel of English prose. It was short and to the point.

Lincoln made one mistake in the address, however, when he said "The world will little note nor long remember what we say here."

The difference between gossip and news is whether you tell it.

I got a nasty letter (printed elsewhere on this page) from Joe W. Rigdon last week. Joe was incensed over something I wrote about H. M. Baggerly, Tulsa editor, recently.

Rigdon has spent most of his turbulent life as a labor leader. I made his acquaintance at Borger some 20 years ago when he led his followers on a 21-day strike.

If my memory serves me correctly, Joe supported Henry A. Wallace in 1948. Joe tried his hand at running a union newspaper. It wasn't too successful. I think Joe and H. M. deserve each other's friendship.

Yes, Joe I've known you since 1947 and it is gratifying to note that you are still your old disagreeable, unreasonable self even after 20 years.

There's two schools of thought on what ought to be done with Palo Duro Canyon.

There's one group which wants to put a dam across the canyon to impound 20 million acre feet of water. This would supply irrigation water to the Plains country where underground sources are expected to play out in a few years.

Another group wants to build a multi-million dollar scenic drive through the canyon.

One thing is for certain. Whichever group gets its way will be asking for federal funds to get the job done.

It's pumpkin pie time. That means it's time to get fat. All those pounds you lost by starving yourself during the summer and fall will be right back again and maybe with company.

I know one man here in Canyon that becomes belligerent when someone says something about a diet around Christmas time.

There's nothing a man likes better and gets less of than pumpkin pie with whipped cream.

Riding motorcycles has become a fad again. It is a dangerous fad at that.

Last Sunday I saw a middle aged man and a more than middle aged woman riding a motorcycle. They like to live more dangerously than I do.

The German military left a good supply of motorcycles behind when they left North Africa. I'd almost bet that those motorcycles inflicted more casualties on the Americansoldiers than did the Germans themselves.

Britain is asking the US to take economic sanctions against Rhodesia. Yet Britain, our supposed ally, continues to trade with North Vietnam, a shooting enemy of the U. S.

J. LaGrone Heads ARC Fund Drive

Jerry Lagrone was named Friday to head up the American Red Cross Committee here. The committee met Friday at Hack's Cafe to lay plans for the annual Red Cross Fund Drive which probably will be held in March next year. Goal this year will be $2500.

The group heard a report from Gary Gwyn on a meeting of a Red Cross Fund Raising Training Program held Thursday in Amarillo. Speaker for the Amarillo meeting was John Greenwood, St. Louis, Mo., regional director for fund raising.

Gwyn said only $1994 was raised last year. "We ought to be able to beat that," he declared.

He said the secret to fund raising is to get the right people working on it. "You've got to use busy people," he said. "They get things done."

Gwyn pointed out that the war in Vietnam has caused increased demands on the Red Cross. "We don't want to overlook what the Red Cross is doing right here."

Each year the local chapter of the American Red Cross helps needy families, especially at Christmas time. Joe Gidden told of giving several baskets of groceries to needy families here last Christmas. Gidden is head of an ARC Committee in charge of this phase of the ARC's work.

On occasion the local Red Cross Chapter has rendered service to families that have members in Vietnam, Gidden reported.

Panhellenic and interfraternity groups on the West Texas State University campus will be asked to take part in the ARC drive in March.

"We know that the Red Cross is something we can't do without," declared Levi Cole.

Farewell Banquet Honors M. Higdon

A retirement banquet honoring Marion Higdon was held Saturday evening at Wyatt's Cafeteria in Amarillo.

The banquet culminated some 30 years of service as a postal employee. He retired last week from a position as postmaster at the Canyon Post Office.

A. W. Pfannmiller, postal inspector, was guest speaker for the evening and applauded Higdon and his staff for the operation of the local postal facility.

Other special guests were a daughter of the Higdon, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Crowell of Amarillo, and two of Higdon's brothers, Sherman Higdon and wife of Arlington and Ralph and wife of Amarillo.

Scouts Sell Flares

SAFETY FLARES are being sold by members of Explorer Post 31. The flares, packaged three to a box, sell for $1.25 and are for use when an automobile is disabled at the side of the road according to Bob Wood, left, and Avery Thrasher. LETTERS TO EDITOR

Commissioner B. R. Jones received the following letter last week:

Dear Mr. Jones:
This is to congratulate you on the fine, high type of men you have working for you.

Tuesday, while driving on F. M. Rd. 1541 I had an accident, turning my car over, in fact, it wound up upside down. A crew of your men working some fifty to a hundred yards away rushed to help me. They not only assisted me, by extracting me from the wreckage, but they also, laboriously, with their bare hands, turned the car back on its wheels. They then stopped a State Highway Department pickup and had the driver radio in to Amarillo for a wrecker. I do not know what I would have done, had it not been for these wonderful people.

Although all of them were tremendously helpful and concerned, one of them, Mr. Dave Hillburn, walked that extra mile, he cared enough for his fellow man, to call me, a complete stranger, Wednesday night, to inquire about my physical condition.

Yes, Mr. Jones, you have some mighty fine men working for you. Please thank them again for me.

Sincerely,
Frank A. Youngblood

Dear Troy:

"TROY MARTIN IN THE CANYON NEWS; H. M. Baggerly of Tulsa last week printed three pictures of himself in a single edition of his own paper. One of them was a full page section cover—Oh modesty."

I read the above four-line item in the Tulsa Herald and my first reaction was—SOUR GRAPES, TROY, OLD BOY. But further thought gave your statement a different and deeper meaning.

It was a venting of the spleen, a statement of frustration, an expression of resentment—not so much at Mr. Baggerly as at your own world, the world which you have served valiantly and with great devotion. Being just an observer and therefore in a position to analyze and judge more objectively, Troy, old boy, I know just how you felt.

For instance: Troy, why has the newspaper fraternity and the world of journalism treated you so badly? Why haven't they given you some of the many awards they have passed out in recent years? Why doesn't the President and other members of the executive, legislative and judicial branches of our great nation subscribe to and listen to what you have to say? Why aren't you recognized by nation-wide organizations as an outstanding editor? These questions clearly present themselves and demand answers.

And "the most unkindest cut of all", why haven't your (many?) friends recognized and honored you? It would be so simple and so easy for Wes Izzard, J. Evets Haley and all your following to find someone to write a best seller on you, your philosophy and position of influence in the world of journalism. Then, once this great book came on the market, it would have been so easy for your hundreds of friends to chip in and buy a FULL PAGE IN YOUR VERY OWN CANYON NEWS and put your picture thereon.

Troy, old boy, they've "done you wrong" and I think all your readers and all the people in the golden spread can understand and appreciate your little outburst at this inadvantage.

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News about it. Telephone OL5-2141, or stop by the News office on the west side of the square.

County Agent's Column

I have received a good supply of the "Farmer's Tax Guide" for 1967. This revised guide should be useful to farmers in making their 1966 Income Tax Returns.

This 64 page publication is published by the Internal Revenue Service and is No. 225. Free copies of this publication can be received by calling by my office on the first floor of the Randall County Courthouse.

... Farmers and ranchers can make many decisions now during the remainder of this year which could mean tax savings. Accurate decisions can be made if adequate and complete records are brought into trial balance before the first of the year. Decisions on whether to buy or sell cattle, equipment, etc., should be made now. Regular expense items needed for next year can be purchased now if net income is higher than usual. Needed ordinary expense items which may be needed soon may be purchased and paid for after the first of the year if the tax take this year appears to be small.

All of these decisions, and many more can be made if good records are kept and used. Now is a good time to become management conscious.

Fertilizer sales are increasing as producers prepare to put in more acres in 1967. Smart farmers are now buying and applying fertilizers they will need for next year's crop. Fertilizers applied now or ahead of the crop needs are just as effective as fertilizers applied at or shortly before planting. Adequate research has been done in this area to prove that we do not lose fertilizer which is put into our soils several months before the crops are planted.

Plants now are manufacturing materials for next year. They, and the distributors, must store their supplies to meet increasing demands. Why not make arrangements now to purchase the needed fertilizer? The kinds and amounts you need next year might not be available.

The two dollars spent now on a soil sample test will help you determine the optimum level of fertilizer for the crops you intend to grow next year.

The Texas Forest Service is now taking applications for seedling trees for windbreak purposes. Randall County people ordered 10,000 of these seedlings in 1966. I have the order blanks. The cost is but $1.50 per hundred.

Dry weed, grasses, and stubble fields are now a potential fire hazard. Rural and Urban residents alike are encouraged to use good judgement at all times while driving, working or hunting in places where dead litter is present.

PTA Plans Meeting

Executive committee of the Rex Reeves Parent-Teacher Association will conduct a business session today, Thursday, at 11:30 a.m. to make final plans for a December 15 general session.

The executive committee will meet at 11:30 a.m. at the school for a general business session including reports from various committees, and further planning on two workshop sessions to be held in February.

Current plans call for the entire PTA group to be entertained December 15 by joint performances of the sixth grade choir and band according to Mrs. H. H. Widick, PTA president.

Mice Nibble Wiring Tags

The workings of mischievous mice with 2,800 feet of Christmas lights caused no small amount of trouble Tuesday and Wednesday.

Crews from the City and Southwestern Public Service found that tags designating where the lights were to be strung around the "square" had been chewed to bits by the rodents.

"We had the sections of wire marked so we would know where to tie them to light posts," laughed Roland Black, Chamber of Commerce manager. "Without the tags we didn't know where the lights were supposed to go."

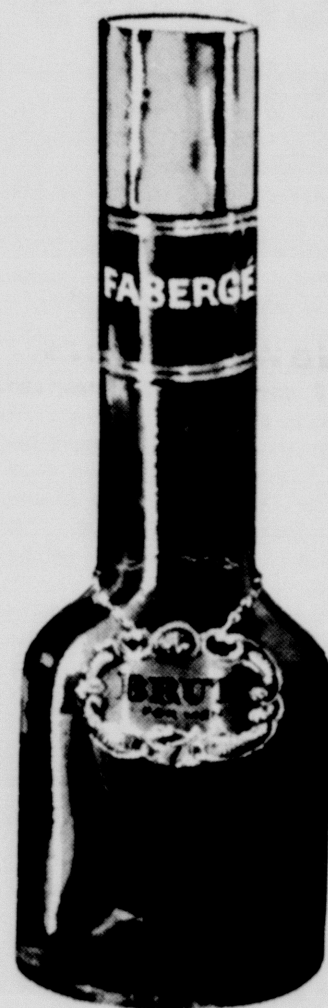

Ratliff Is Tax Man

Alan Ratliff, former Canyon Police Patrolman, began duties Monday as acting City Tax Assessor-Collector.

The temporary appointment was made, said City Manager Gary Gwyn, until some decision could be reached on a proposed contract with the Canyon Independent School District to collect City taxes.

The proposal to link the two collection agencies is being studied by both groups.

Calvin Costley, former patrolman and Randall County Deputy, has been named to replace Ratliff.

Symphonic Band Awarded Honor

Dr. Warner Imig, President of the Southwestern Division of the Music Educators National Conference, recently announced the selection of the West Texas State University Symphonic Band to appear in concert at the MENC Southwestern Division biennial meeting at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs March 9-12.

The Band's performance is scheduled for the first General Session on Friday, March 10.

The WTSU Band was one of three college bands in a seven state area, including Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas, chosen to appear, and the only band from Texas.

Selections were made by an auditioning committee which screened tape recordings submitted by the numerous organizations requesting consideration.

The Colorado Springs concert will be the concluding one of the annual concert tour which takes the Canyon organization to high schools throughout the Tri-State area.

The Symphonic Band, a group of approximately 80 of the finest musicians chosen from among the 170 members in the WT Bands, specializes in the performance of the most significant literature available for band.

The growth of the band program at WTSU has paralleled that of the Music Department which, under the direction of Department Chairman Dr. John E. Green, has continued to expand and enhance its reputation for one of the outstanding music offerings in the Southwest.

Director of Bands is Gary Garner, now in his fourth year at WT. Donald Baird, who came to Canyon last year, is Assistant Director.

FOURTEEN STUDENTS from Randall County are included in the record enrollment at Texas A&M University this fall, announced Registrar H. L. Heaton.

Retiring Postmaster Recalls Olden Days

BY WAYNE BOARD

Marion Higdon, who came to Canyon in 1917, paused Friday, his last day as Canyon's Postmaster, to take a look at the past.

He came here as a boy of 11 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Higdon.

"We moved here," Higdon recalled, "because of the school opportunities both public and at the college."

His father hauled express, baggage and ran a taxi service complete with wagon and horses.

"It was in the days before college students had any transportation," Higdon said, "and Dad used to meet the trains and carry the student's baggage to the dormitories."

"I can still see him going down the street carrying twenty five or thirty trunks for the students--and that might not be all there was to carry from one train either," he continued.

Higdon began his career with the Canyon Post Office April 15, 1936 as a substitute clerk. He was made a regular clerk Nov. 16, 1939, assistant postmaster May 1, 1952, acting postmaster Feb. 28, 1957 and was appointed postmaster Aug. 8, 1958.

In 1936, he said, there were seven postal employees including two rural carriers. There are now 20 men in the department and he said another was needed.

As to Christmas, which is the busy time of the year, Higdon said mail handling was improving.

"People buy early now," he commented, "and it's much easier to handle the Christmas mail. People used to crowd all their Christmas mailing into about ten days."

The mode of transporting mail has also changed, making the postal employees' job easier. "It's changed from sending mail on the railroad to using trucks," Higdon declared.

"In the past," he said, "we would get and send mail five and six times a day on the train--we never knew exactly when the trains were coming or leaving."

This, he said, made it difficult to schedule work for the employees and left a good deal of "dead" time between trains. "People should realize that although we don't receive or send mail as often as before, all the mail is transported at night on the route trucks and we get better service," the postmaster related.

He said about 95 percent of mail sent to Canyon each day is received by 6 a.m. and the remaining five percent arrives by 11:30 a.m.

"That five percent is what has accumulated at Sectional Center in Amarillo," he explained.

One of the most important features added to help postal employees is the ZIP Code, Higdon stated, because it helps cut down handling of the mails.

"With full use of the ZIP Code, we can cut down handling by about 50 percent. In the past, we had to handle each piece of first class mail 17 times--it's now down to ten times," he said.

Canyon's 79015 number, he explained, is divided into four categories.

"The seven stands for either the Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana or Arkansas section of the United States; the nine is for the West Texas area; the zero is for the Amarillo Sectional Office; and the 15 is the Delivery Unit number for Canyon."

One of his most rewarding experiences, Higdon said, was becoming a Postmaster Trainer in 1960.

He explained he had gone to a Postmaster's Convention during that year and had discussed the possibility of someone to help new postmasters become oriented in handling their duties.

"A man from Kress, Panhandle and myself have gone to many post offices since then to train new men," he said. "We spend two or three days with them and then later they come to our offices to see how we work. Of course, we train men in post offices that are similar in size to our own."

Higdon said the post office here handles between 30,000 and 35,000 pieces of mail per day during a regular school year.

"That may not seem like a lot," he commented, "but we average three pieces of mail for every citizen here. That figure also includes mail that goes to West Texas State University which his office sorts and forwards to the campus."

MARION HIGDON, who came to Canyon as a boy of 11, retired as Postmaster Friday. He has been with the Post Office here for 30 years. Acting Postmaster is Lee Roy Moreland.

branch."

Nothing really unusual has been mailed through the office here, he remarked, except some horned toads from time to time.

"People often mail the horned toads to friends or relatives who have never seen what the animals look like," Higdon laughed. "Of course, we get the usual amount of baby chickens when they're in season--it sometimes sounds like a hatchery around here."

Higdon, who has been active in the Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce, also has aided in various civic and charitable undertakings.

He was waiting Friday to meet with a postal inspector who would go over the records.

"They usually make an unannounced visit once during each fiscal year," Higdon said. "I think it's an honor for us here because it has been more than a year and a half since one was here last--I guess they trust us."

"If it hadn't been for the good people of Canyon, I wouldn't have this job. I've tried to give friendly, courteous service--it's been rewarding," he said.

Higdon and his wife Elsie have two daughters, Mrs. Chuck Gorton lives in Ludlow, Ill. and her husband is a civilian instructor at an Air Force Base there. They were previously at Amarillo Air Force Base before operations there were partially phased out.

Mrs. Curtis Crowell teaches in the Summit Elementary School in Amarillo and her husband is a West Texas State University student.

"My wife Elsie," Higdon proudly stated, "should be given as much credit as any good wife could have."

As for retirement plans, Higdon said he had none.

"I like accounting work and I may freshen up my schooling because I never did graduate from college," he continued.

day night, December 10, at 7:30 in the Pampa High School auditorium with the All-Region Band.

Director for the All-Region Band concert will be A. Clyde Roller, associate conductor of the Houston Symphony Orchestra and former conductor of the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra for 13 seasons.

The All-Region Band was initiated ten years ago to serve a two-fold purpose. First, it allows the outstanding high school instrumentalists to perform with others in a musical group playing literature not generally available to them in their own schools, and under the direction of a well-known guest conductor.

Second, the All-Region Band is a stepping stone toward a chair in the select All-State Band which performs each February at the statewide Texas Music Educators Association.

Students selected for all-region band are winners of competitive auditions. Participating in the eliminations Tuesday were students from Amarillo High School, Caprock High School, Palo Duro High School, Tascosa High School, Borger High School, Pampa High School, Dumas High School, Hereford High School, Perryton High School, Tulia High School and Canyon High School.

Will the "old rocking chair" get Marion Higdon who has just ended 30 years of service with the post office?

"No, I don't plan to sit down and rust," he concluded.

9th Ave. will be destroyed and the area cleared, Gwyn said.

He told the council the owner of the property had been notified by certified letter of the city's desire to clear the lot and Canyon Fire Department Captain Joe Rice said he would begin burning the building as soon as he received written approval from the owner.

Gwyn said he had been discussing with the Texas Highway Department the possibility of erecting new marker signs at 23rd St. and 4th Ave.

There may be signs, he said, designating the route to Palo Duro Canyon State Park, similar to those on the Canyon Expressway.

The City will also advertise for bids on a 12-month supply of bulk gasoline to be delivered as needed.

In the past, new bids were sought every six months, but Gwyn recommended the extended contract.

All bids must be returned to City Hall by 5 p.m. Jan. 9. The bids will be read at a regular commission meeting that night. About 32,000 gallons of gasoline was used by the city last year.

Gwyn also announced that about $5,500 of $26,000 in delinquent city taxes had been collected.

cal ministry, some traditional structures must be abandoned. The tradition of "Religious Emphasis Week" is now a contradiction to what we believe to be our ministry at this university.

By this title, Religious Emphasis Week, we mean the programming that surrounds the Willson Lectures. While we see great value in the Willson Lectures, although the speakers do not represent our choice, we feel that "Religious Emphasis Week" is an anachronism that now emerges as a coercive experience, and is greeted by this campus in a negative fashion.

"We believe that while this particular tradition had validity many years ago, it no longer retains that image today. It is a burden we no longer wish to bear. It is not our kind of ministry."

"We, therefore, have decided to withdraw our support and no longer participate in 'Religious Emphasis Week.' We will continue to support and promote attendance at the Willson Lectures as one facet of a year-round ministry to this academic community."

"Our ministry in this university must seek depth if we are to minister with integrity. These words are motivated only by this concern."

Randall County Criminal District Attorney told the court and two representatives of the Texas Highway Department that he has filed condemnation suits to provide right of way for straightening a curve in South Washington Road near Palo Duro Turkey Farm and for a passing lane on the same road near Camp Don Harrington. Representing the Highway Department at the meeting were Chili Smith, district engineer, and H. V. York, resident engineer. Smith said he hopes right of way can be certified by Dec. 15 so the job will be ready for January letting.

ers spent a cozy night in the law office of Lair, Williams, and Cox, next door to the ASCS office. The law firm provided shelter and coffee for them through the long wait.

"We did not call the sheriff as reported in an out of town newspaper," Lloyd declared. "The sheriff was there because he had a farm to sign up."

Actually, the sheriff had been called by one of the farmers present and not by an ASCS official.

There were only 17 contracts last year for the 1966 crop. Lloyd said the number registered for the program this year came to 75 as of Monday. Sign-up will continue through March 31, 1967.

The program is operated on a first come basis. Also as of Monday there was registration for the CAP 14,632 acres of feed grain, 160.4 cotton and 2,010.1 acres of non-allotment acreage.

Randall County was allotted only 11,000 acres for CAP.

The 11,000 acres is 10 percent of the total county feed grain base, according to Lloyd. "We are limited to that amount unless commissioners court and the county committee acts to increase this limit," he went on.

If money were available to pay for all the acreage already signed up the tab would come to $441,271.33, Lloyd reported.

"We're not only over on money, we're over the acre limit too," he said. "If there are some who drop out, especially big acreages, we might make it," Lloyd continued. "Otherwise, we will just have to take it on a first come basis as far as the money and acreage allotted will go."

Heaviest sign-up in the state has been on the Plains, according to District ASCS Fieldman Doyle Thomas.

Lloyd said he is hopeful that the state allocation will be increased and that the money available for Randall County will be increased substantially.

The ASCS office manager stressed that the list of those who register is public information.

TBCampaign Nets $6,523

The Tuberculosis Association's Christmas seal campaign has netted $6,523 from sales in Potter and Randall Counties according to Dr. J. Edwin Low, local chairman.

Dr. Low said that residents of the city of Canyon contributed $339 toward the effort.

Santa Claus will also arrive in Canyon December 17 to visit with local youngsters and hear their "wishes". Santa will be located in a candy stripe house, furnished by the Jaycees, which is to be set up on the north side of the courthouse lawn.

The merry gentleman will distribute sacks of goodies to the youngsters during the afternoon visiting hours.

Canyon Jaycees and Jayceettes will sponsor the live nativity scene on the evenings of December 15-16. The presentation will be on the courthouse lawn between the hours of 7-9 each evening.

The nativity tableau is a major project of the two civic clubs.

In the scene will be Mary, Joseph, the Angel, the Shepherd Boy, the Three Wise Men and numerous animals.

"The scene is especially educational and fascinating for small children, since the characters move about while Christmas songs are being played in the background," according to Mrs. Jim Scott, chairman.

Christmas lights were placed around the square this week and will glow each night during the holiday season. Efforts of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce create the holiday atmosphere each year.

Eagles honored were Sheldon B. Johnson, William R. Lumry, James "Pat" Hickman, Troop 31; and Allan B. Carleton, Mike McBroom, and Bruce Crager, all of Troop 66; and Howard Gidden, Explorer Post 66.

Each boy received an Eagle Scout tie clasp.

"You can be proud of it," Zinkiewicz declared.

A potluck supper was held in the high school cafeteria immediately before the ceremonies.

Buffaloes Bow To Phillips 66

By Jon Low

The powerful Phillips 66ers invaded Buffalo Fieldhouse Saturday night and rolled to a 101-81 triumph over West Texas State's fighting but inexperienced Buffaloes.

Paced by the brilliant under-the-boards work of 6-10 giant Kendall Rhine of Rice and outside shooting of dead-eye Darel Carrier, the 66ers ran to a 50-37 halftime lead before West Texas drew within four points at 57-53 midway through the third period. From that point the Gasmen pulled away with a strong finish for the 101-81 win.

Leading the spirited Buff effort was Canyon's 6-5 Mickey Fitts. Fitts popped the nets for 23 points and hauled in 10 rebounds, tops for West Texas in both categories.

Statistical leaders for the game were Carrier with 25 points and Rhine with 13 rebounds.

Center Vern Furlow 6-7 of Amarillo was a valuable contributor to the Buffalo cause, scoring 17 points.

It was a sophomore spark-plug named Val Franklin who was named the first recipient of the Buffalo Award. The Buffalo Award, selected by the WT coaching staff, was conceived this year to recognize the player whose presence in the lineup incites his teammates to a maximum effort. Franklin is a 5-11 guard from Lamesa.

Franklin was "thrown into the fire" by Coach Jimmy Vramontes late in the first half, and responded by hitting four of six field goal attempts and "playing a fine all-around game," said Vramontes.

Vramontes had praise for many of his players for their efforts against the taller and more experienced 66ers.

"Fitts kept us in the game," commented the Buff coach, elaborating, "He hasn't fully recovered from a sprained ankle, and I thought he played exceptionally well."

"Furlow and Rod Teague looked real good at times, and Jack Johnson helped us," complimented Vramontes.

Phillips' fine third-year Coach Gary Thompson, whose record is now 8-17, praised the Buffs as "a hustling team that's going to be hard to beat this year." Thompson added, "I thought the Buffs played a good game considering this was their first game of the year."

"Phillips is an outstanding team," Vramontes responded. "We might have given them a better game, but we had to rest our starters in the second half and I wanted to get our sophomores in there to gain experience," concluded Vramontes.

Following Fitts and Furlow in the scoring column, WT's scoring was completed by Teague, (8), Franklin (8), David Nowlin (6), Mike Mitchell (6), Johnson (6), Jerry Cooper (4), Jim Neilson (2), and Derrith Welch (1).

Although Mitchell played only sparingly, he was runner-up to Fitts in rebounds with five.

Rhine and former Texas Aggie John Beasley, who together average over 6-9 in height, teamed to clear 23 rebounds off the boards and lead the 66ers to a dominant 49-37 team advantage in that category.

The loss will not be counted on the Buffs' record, as the 66ers are a non-college amateur foe. The Phillips games against college opponents are considered exhibition games.

Barnes Selected Player Of Week

Mike Barnes is playing his first year of varsity basketball for Canyon High School's defending District 1-AAA champions, but the 6-2 senior forward has been looking like a veteran.

For his outstanding performance at the Pampa Tournament, Mike is the recipient of this week's Canyon News Player of the Week honor.

Mike averaged 25 points a game in the three-game Pampa competition, and hauled in 35 rebounds to lead the Eagles to third place.

Against Borger in the Eagles' only loss, Barnes scorched the nets with 31 points and grabbed 14 rebounds, both highs for his team this year.

"The Borger game was the best of my life," Barnes says when asked to choose his biggest thrill in basketball. Mike has been playing competitive basketball for five years.

A first baseman on the CHS baseball team, Mike also enjoys snow skiing, fishing, and "most other sports."

As a member of the high school choir, he is also interested in music.

Mike hopes to play college basketball while pursuing a major in history, which he hopes to eventually teach. He is presently leaning toward Texas Tech as his college choice. "Mike has made more progress than anyone on the team," comments Coach Tom Buchanan.

Barnes had strong opposition from other roundballers this week.

WTSU's Mickey Fitts dumped in 23 points against the Phillips 66ers, when he wasn't busy claiming rebounds—he had 10 in a strong performance made more remarkable by the fact that he is just rounding into shape after being hampered for

CHS Girls To Play In Tourney

The Canyon High School girls varsity basketball team will attempt to defeat a squad from Happy when the two teams clash Friday morning.

The game, slated at 10:20 in the West Texas State University Fieldhouse, will mark the second time the two teams have met. They will play in the annual WT Tournament.

Coach Bob Schneider said the two had met earlier in scrimmage. At that time, the Canyon girls defeated Happy by some 20 points.

Tuesday evening, the Canyon girls fell to Dimmitt 44-21. Pam Sternberg, Canyon's post forward scored 10 points. "Our young kids have not played much," Schneider commented. "In fact, our seniors haven't played much either and we've had several injuries."

The CHS Coach expressed hope that Charlotte Allen, outside shooter and "play maker", would be ready for combat Friday. She has seen little action recently due to a knee injury.

In a recent Friona Tournament, the Canyon girls defeated Petersburg 35-36, but fell to Friona and Farwell.

"Our best moment against Petersburg," Schneider said, "was when there were ten seconds left to play and the score was tied. Pam Richardson made a free throw and enabled us to win the game."

Schneider said he felt the team's defense was improving with every game.

"If we can get over our injuries, I think we can hold our own in district competition," he concluded.

The Eagles will meet Perryton here Jan. 6 for their first district game.

Bobcats Trip Eagles 48-47

Canyon High School's Eagles lost a heartbreaker Tuesday night at Dimmitt. The score was 48-47 in favor of the Bobcats.

Mid-week finds the Eagles girding for the West Texas State University Basketball Tournament. The varsity opens against Clarendon at 5:20 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Coach Tom Buchanan's charges almost tasted victory in the game with Dimmitt Tuesday night.

The Eagles got off to a bad start and trailed 21 to 12 at the end of the first period. Canyon held its own during the second quarter and the score was 35 to 26 in favor of Dimmitt at halftime.

The Eagles began playing catchup ball in the third stanza narrowing the Dimmitt lead to a mere three points by the end of the quarter with Dimmitt still leading 44 to 41.

Mike Barnes was high point man for Canyon with 22 points to his credit. Next was Richard Gidden with 10 points. Barnes picked up 12 rebounds. Coach Buchanan said the Eagle shooting percentage at 31 was the poorest so far this season.

The Canyon B team won its Dimmitt tilt 52 to 38. Lon Conners with 13 points was high shooter for Canyon. Next was Jackie Thrasher with 12.

The Eagles swept past strong opposition to third place in the Pampa Tournament during the past weekend.

Canyon met Elk City, Okla., in a showdown for third place, and emerged with a 76-69 triumph.

Barnes pumped in 27 points to lead the Eagles, while Richard Gardner and Joe Moore contributed 17 and 16, respectively.

Gardner's 12 rebounds and 11 caroms by Barnes topped the rebounding statistics.

Canyon defeated Channing 55-48 in their tournament opener, but slipped into the fight for third with Elk City when they were shot down 75-62 by Borger.

Barnes, who lead the Eagles in scoring in every game, netted 17 against Channing. Joe Moore and Galen Davis backed him up with 10 each.

In the loss to Borger, Barnes was never better. He poured in 31 points and snatched 14 rebounds. Joe Moore was run-

HARRY LISLE

Lisle Named All-Arkansas

Canyon's Harry Lisle, who terrified Harding College opponents whenever he latched on to a punt or kickoff, Sunday was named to the All-Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference defensive team.

Harry, a sturdy 165-pound halfback, led the AIC in kickoff returns and finished second in punt return average, 14.9 yards to 14.4, to Southern State's Jim Leonard, although he led Leonard in total yards returned.

Harry's selection as a defensive halfback is particularly noteworthy because he didn't play any as a tackler. He spent most of his playing time on offense but was noted for his fourth-down work.

Lisle returned 12 kickoffs for 346 yards, a 28.8 average. One of them went for a touchdown, a 92-yarder on the opening kickoff against Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss.

He returned two punts for scores, and one of them was a game-breaker. The big play in a defensive struggle with Ouachita Baptist University, it went for 74 yards. The Bisons won, 6-0, enroute to a 6-3 season.

Probably his best effort came in the Millsaps game, when he caught a punt, on the dead run, at his own 39. Lisle shot by a pair of Majors and headed for the left sideline. Two men had clean shots at him near mid-field, but he squirmed away from both, came out a clump and outraced everybody to the end zone.

Harry, a popular math major and physical education minor, spent his freshman year at West Texas State. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Lisle of 205 12th Street, Canyon.

Elementary School supervisors from over the Panhandle and South Plains Tuesday held a conference on the West Texas State University Campus.

Yuletide Decorations Being Prepared...Inside and Out!

Hobbyist Spends 35 Years Collecting Yule Ornaments

By Lorena Miller

"I like to use a different scheme each year in holiday decorating," says Mrs. W. R. Crow of 1300 Eighth Avenue who has spent some 35 years in collecting Christmas ideas and putting them to use.

"It isn't necessary to change everything," Mrs. Crow stated. "I just rearrange my centerpieces, respray and use them in different places throughout the house."

"Nobody can help me with the decorating indoors," Mrs. Crow smiled. "Because I pack everything away and know exactly where it is and where I plan to use it."

"I start decorating about the first of December each year and it takes about a week to get everything ready, if I hurry. My husband and grandson, Terry Crow, are the outdoor decorators," said Mrs. Crow. "Decorating is my favorite hobby," Mrs. Crow stated explaining that she often plans decorating themes for church and school affairs.

The Crow home is the site for several local clubs to entertain for Christmas socials each year. This year's entertainment schedule will include the Canyon Garden Club, the Pheasant Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church, a women's circle at the First Baptist Church and several other groups.

"I love to share it with others," smiled Mrs. Crow, who last year displayed the home to over 100 area residents who had heard about the unusual decorating theme.

Christmas decorating is a year long hobby with Mrs. Crow who said that she buys new Christmas baubles "after the holiday rush when they are on special" and collects pine cones and other decorating tidbits at her leisure during the year.

"I'm always looking out for bargains," said Mrs. Crow. "That way I have a whole year to decide how to use them."

Also included in Mrs. Crow's decorating scheme are numerous small antiques such as an iron pot filled with poinsettias and flanked by wrought iron candlesticks with red tapers. She also annually uses a coffee grinder in one centerpiece, surrounded with holly or with pine cones and greenery.

"I use everything over and over," Mrs. Crow stated.

"Nearly all of my decorations are artificial so that I can continue to use them. I'm still using some Christmas balls and lights which belonged to the children's grandmother."

In order to give a complete Christmas theme to the home, Mrs. Crow often removes her favorite paintings and other items from her walls and shelves and decorates in their place.

Each room of the Crow home is decorated in a different theme, for instance, the basement which is used as the family room always takes on a lustre of the old west with a green pine tree and western accents. This year the basement will feature greens, golds and reds according to Mrs. Crow.

Meanwhile, the living room and den will be decorated for the holidays with numerous centerpieces and each room will have its own theme. Centering the arch between the two rooms will be a net Christmas tree which incorporates more than 200 tufts of net.

"I want the tree to be in a mint green this year and plan to decorate it with holly and gold. The large archway will also feature lights and background greenery with baubles."

A majority of Mrs. Crow's decorating ideas are her own although she readily admits that she spends hours looking through various magazines and florists books.

The mother of five, Mrs. Crow said that the outdoor decorations were much more prevalent at the home with the children to help.

"The boys always helped their father decorate outdoors for Christmas," said Mrs. Crow. Her children include Jack Crow of Albuquerque, New Mexico; Ronald Crow of Weatherford, Oklahoma; Mrs. Rita Jo Lee of Denver, Colorado; and Carl Gene and Billy Ray Crow, both of Canyon.

Mrs. Crow also has 13 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren to entertain during the holidays.

"I just try to add a little to my collection each year and then figure a way to use them all in my home during the holidays," concluded Mrs. Crow.

MRS. W. R. CROW rearranges her Christmas topiary tree as numerous centerpieces and holiday displays in the background await their turn to be "facelifted" for the season. Mrs. Crow decorates each room of the home at 1300 Eighth Avenue for various club parties and other Yuletide guests.

Balcony Nativity Scene Featured

The Joe Frank home at 1214 Fifth Avenue has taken several honors in the residential lighting contests in years of the past and will this year again feature the "balcony nativity scene".

"I've seen the nativity scene of plywood and plastic and they always seem to look so unreal and cold," said Mrs. Frank. "So one year, I decided the balcony would be a perfect spot for such a nativity scene and I gathered up all types of materials and things that I could use and bought some styrofoam balls for the heads," Mrs. Frank recalled.

The figures, mounted in a Christmas tree stand, are clothed in purple for Joseph and blue for Mary and the Baby Jesus is a doll which formerly belonged to the Frank's daughter.

"I take a broomstick and then pad the body and arms and drape the figures to resemble clothing," said Mrs. Frank. "It is fascinating and I usually do it all by myself."

The scene is flooded with a colorwheel of light which varies the scene from a casting of blue to red, yellow and green.

"The colorwheel adds to the overall picture and gives a photo effect," said Mrs. Frank.

Among her other outdoor decorations, Mrs. Frank also will have a large pine tree decorated with lights and will place a lighted Santa somewhere in front of the house in a floodlight.

Indoors Mrs. Frank will decorate the family tree for her five daughters and grandchildren who are all planning to be at home for the holidays. The Frank's daughters include Mrs. Perry Hoyler of Canyon, Mrs. James Veale of Shreveport, Louisiana and Judy, Mary Ann and Eva, who are all at home.

This will be the fourth year that Mrs. Frank has decorated featuring the "balcony nativity scene."

Great grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Plank of Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Piersall of Catesby, Oklahoma, Mrs. S. S. Cook of Carthage and Mrs. C. V. Thompson of Lompoc, California.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kress of Wiggins, Colorado. He is a freshman student at Colorado State College in Greeley, Colorado, where he majors in industrial arts.

Hicks Home Has Additions

Preparations have been going on almost all year at the M.W. Hicks home, west of Canyon, which was named number one for outdoor lighting in last year's residential contest.

The Christmas display annually involves a number of Christmas scenes ranging from the nativity scene, to the traditional Santa Claus. Several additions to the scene have been made this year by Mrs. Hicks with the assistance from her brother-in-law, Jess Hicks.

During April, the Hicks made cutout plywood scenes of Rudolph and other reindeer pulling a sleigh. Then in early November, cutouts of camels and wise men were made for the scene.

Also prepared for the 1966 season was a giant United States flag which uses some 200 miniature bulbs.

"I couldn't find the red bulbs for the stripes, so I painted each of them individually," said Mrs. Hicks. The flag has red and white stripes with a blue star background and the stars are reflectors for white light bulbs.

"This year we put up a Noel sign on the rooftop which is outlined with about 160 lights.

Open House Set Sunday

Open house at the home of Sheriff and Mrs. L. S. Johnston will be held from 2 o'clock until 5 the afternoon of Dec. 18.

"Randall County has been good to us," Johnston declared. "We just want to show our appreciation."

The Johnstons live at 2402 Eleventh Avenue.

We also have lights around the eave of the house and have this year made a design on the fence with lights featuring bell clusters," said Mrs. Hicks.

Mrs. Hicks has been busily stringing lights since before Thanksgiving because she likes to avoid "the cold weather of December."

"We expect to have the entire scene lighted by December 10," stated Mrs. Hicks. "The lights will shine from then until New Year's Day."

The Hicks home is located six miles west of the Canyon City limits on FM Road 1062. The annual display has been applauded by many local residents as the "best in the Panhandle."

HD Clubwomen Social Monday

Christmas social for all home demonstration clubwomen will be held Monday, December 12, at the Farm Bureau Building.

Highlighting the 2 p.m. social will be the installation of new council officers for 1967. Mrs. R. A. Hodges will conduct the installation.

IWO JIMA

The flag six men raised atop Mt. Suribachi on the tiny Pacific island of Iwo Jima cost 5,000 American lives and 20,000 Japanese. It was a small victory in a large war. Yet on that island men met responsibility for the lives and for the way of life of their countrymen back home. This responsibility gave them the courage to fight the battle of Iwo Jima. "Uncommon valor was a common virtue."

Road Rally Tests Scouts Ability

A "road rally" is being planned for Explorer Scouts and their guests on Saturday, December 17.

Sponsored by the Llano Estacado Council Explorer Cabinet, the road rally will test the ability of explorers to follow a twisting, turning road course to an unknown destination.

The course has been laid out by the Panhandle Foreign and Sports Car Club, Inc. It will be a competitive driving experience following a set of carefully planned directions incorporating distance travelled, set speeds, and observation abilities of the contestants. It will not be a race but will test the driver's ability to handle a car at a precise speed following closely the detailed directions which will be interpreted by his navigator.

Registration and the starting point for the rally will be at the Tascosa High School parking lot, 3921 Westlawn, in Amarillo.

Registration begins at 2 p.m. and the first car will leave the starting point at 3:01 p.m.

Contestants must be an explorer scout or his guest and must furnish their own car, properly insured, and participant must have a valid driver's license. Each car will have only two people, the driver and navigator.

Registration fee will be $1 per person on advance registration or $1.25 payable at the time of registration. All participants will receive engraved dash plaques.

UNIVERSITY CHORALE members will be featured in a special pre-Christmas concert Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. in the theatre of the Fine Arts Building. The group will be joined by the WTSU Brass and Percussion Company for several selections. The performance is open to the public at no admission.

The combined musical forces of the Choral and the Brass and Percussion Company will be used in "Sunrise Alleluia" and "Jabberwocky".

Sunday's concert will conclude a week's tour by the two groups which has taken them to various high schools of the Panhandle and as far south as Odessa and San Angelo.

NEW PAVING WORK on 10th St. between 5th and 7th Ave. has been completed.

Although City Engineer Bill McMorries had earlier recommended the last of the paving be set aside until spring because of approaching winter weather, he gave the "go ahead" because no moisture had fallen that would halt construction.

City's budget for the paving was more than $17,000.

Contractors for the paving were J. Lee Milligan Construction Company of Amarillo.

"PREVENTION THROUGH Education" will be the theme of a Panhandle Conference on Alcohol Studies Saturday at West Texas State University.

The conference, to open with registration at 9 a.m. in the Fine Arts Building auditorium, is expected to attract area doctors, nurses, teachers, and community leaders. It is sponsored by WTSU, the Amarillo Council on Alcoholism, Texas Commission on Alcoholism, and the Division of Extension of the University of Texas.

BATHROOMS NOT BEST FOR KEEPING MEDICINES

Modern medicines are potent. It is important they be protected against deterioration. Whenever you take a hot shower or bath, the temperature is raised to a degree that may affect stability. Store medicines in a constantly normal, locked cabinet out of reach of children.

Read the labels of every medicine. Some should be refrigerated. Most of them are best kept in a cool dry place. None should be placed near heat.

We invite your inspection of our prescription laboratory. You can see thousands of medicines stored for maximum potency and immediate availability. We welcome prescriptions requiring intricate compounding.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

TWO MEN escaped without injury Monday morning when this pickup and a stock trailer overturned on the E-Way near Buffalo Bowl. One of two horses in the trailer suffered a broken leg and was destroyed.

Horse Injured In Wreck Here

It was necessary to destroy a quarter horse Monday morning after a stock trailer and pickup rolled on Canyon Hill in the vicinity of Buffalo Bowl.

Two Amarillo men in the pickup were not believed to have been seriously hurt. The horses belonged to Earl Dollar who was in the pickup. Dollar was accompanied by Ross Winfrow, also of Amarillo. Dollar was enroute to a horse sale at Clovis.

Sheriff L. S. Johnston said the trailer began whipping and that both the pickup and trailer overturned twice. Both Dollar and Winfrow were thrown out. The pickup and trailer were heavily damaged. A log chain from under the pickup seat was wrapped three times around the steering column.

One horse was saddled. Johnston said two and a half inches of the swell and about that much of the cantle was burned away as the horse skidded on his back along the pavement.
